Brain Research through Advancing Innovative Neurotechnologies® (BRAIN) - Neuroethics Working Group Meeting

Agenda – Monday, August 19, 2019

Neuroscience Center – Conference Rooms C/D
6001 Executive Blvd
Rockville, MD 20852

CLOSED SESSION
9:00 am

OPEN SESSION
10:30 am Welcome and introductions

10:40 am Update on the NIH BRAIN Initiative
   Walter Koroshetz, MD, NINDS

11:00 am BREAK

11:15 am Roundtable updates
   Neuroethics Working Group members

11:30 am Strategic Science Communication:
   A Social Scientific Approach to Public Engagement
   John Besley, PhD, Michigan State University

12:00 pm Discussion
   Moderated by Hank Greely, JD, Stanford

12:30 pm LUNCH

1:30 pm Incorporating concerns of users and investigators in neurotechnology development
   Winston Chiong, MD, PhD, UCSF

1:50 pm Personality Change in the Context of Parkinson’s disease and Deep Brain Stimulation
   Cynthia Kubu, PhD, Cleveland Clinic

2:10 pm BREAK

2:40 pm Neuroethics of Adaptive Deep Brain Stimulation Systems Targeting Neuropsychiatric and Movement Disorders
Gabriel Lazaro-Munoz, JD, PhD, MBE, Baylor College of Medicine

3:00 pm  Neuroethics of predictive MRI testing for autism spectrum disorder: F32-funded work in progress
Kate MacDuffie, PhD, University of Washington

3:20 pm  Discussion
Moderated by Christine Grady, MSN, PhD, NIH

3:50 pm  Final Thoughts and Remarks

4:15 pm  ADJOURN